

FUNERAL TO-DAY OF MACSWINEY IN CHURCH IN CORK

Bishop Cohan Will Officiate at Requiem Mass at Noon.

BURIAL AT ONE O'CLOCK

Irish Martyr Will Be Laid to Rest in the Republican Plot.

PLANS ARE NOT CHANGED

Body of Lord Mayor Will Lie Beside That of MacCurtain, His Predecessor.

By the Associated Press.
CORK, Oct. 30.—Up to late to-night no change in the plans for the funeral of the late Lord Mayor MacSwiney had been announced. The original plans provided that the body would be taken to the cathedral at 11 o'clock Sunday morning.

Bishop Cohan will officiate at the requiem mass at 12 o'clock, and the burial will be at 1 o'clock in the afternoon in "the Republican plot" beside the grave of MacSwiney's predecessor, Thomas MacCurtain.

CORK, Oct. 30.—British Intelligence officers declared this afternoon that they were in receipt of information, obtained through interception, that every officer or man of the crown forces appearing in the streets of Cork to-morrow was likely to be shot.

An air of apprehension throughout the city over what may happen on the day of the funeral of Lord Mayor MacSwiney seemed to have superseded the restrained attitude with which the populace received word of the incident at Holyhead when the body of the late Lord Mayor was diverted from the route chosen by the family and sent by steamship to Cork, and the unceremonious manner in which the body reached this city.

The authorities this afternoon were seeking to appraise the effect the viewing of the corpse would have upon the thousands who passed by the bier of the late Lord Mayor to-day, and are bearing in mind the statements of officials say were made by Sinn Féin representatives during the prisoner's long fast, that should death ensue, there would be reprisals of some kind.

The black crepe which draped the front of the City Hall, in the midst of which the Republican flag was displayed, disappeared during the curfew hours last night. It was replaced to-day.

Thousands of Irishmen of all classes and callings, with their wives and children, filed in solemn procession to-day past the bier of the late Lord Mayor, mutely testifying to the esteem with which he was held by his fellow townsmen, and the whole of Nationalist Ireland. By train, leaving Cork at about 11 o'clock, and from the more distant Irish centres poured into the city from early morning.

The glass covered casket, revealing the emaciated features of the late Lord Mayor and his body dressed in the uniform of an officer of the Irish Republican Army, which had been submitted for the Franciscan robe, reposed on a flower banked catafalque, four volunteers in civilian dress maintaining guard. The platform of the choir loft, in front of which the body lay, was a mass of greenery and flowers, framing a central floral representation of the Crucifix.

which, outlined against a huge background of black velvet, dominated the whole display.

The offerings were accompanied by condolences and tributes to the Lord Mayor's martyrdom from all parts of the world. Many came from the Chicago chapters of the Friends of Irish Freedom and other American organizations and individuals.

Father Dominic, the dead Lord Mayor's private chaplain, received the following telegram from Chaplain-Gen. James J. Troy of the American forces on the Rhine, dated at Coblenz:

"Please convey to the Lady Mayoress my profound sympathy in her great bereavement. Mayor MacSwiney died for the things we thought we fought for in the world war, and his name shall go down the ages as an immortal, who did not quake before the tyrant, but whose soul was as grand as the ideal for which he died. I have said mass for him and the other martyrs in Cork jail and will do the same on the Feast of All Souls. Their names will forever be treasured, not merely in Ireland, but wherever the word and reality of freedom are loved and honored."

BISHOP COMMANDS STRIKERS TO EAT

Visits Cork Jail, but Men All Refuse Food.

CORK, Ireland, Oct. 30.—Bishop Cohan of Cork visited the jail yesterday and peremptorily ordered the hunger strikers there to take food. All of them refused. Thereupon Bishop Cohan instructed the nuns attending the hunger strikers to prepare food. The nuns, having no alternative, obeyed the command and offered food to each of the prisoners, but all refused it.

Bishop Cohan now is appealing personally to the Sinn Féin leaders to release the prisoners from their hunger strike. At noon to-day they had completed the eighteenth day of their fast. Michael Burke collapsed this morning. Sean Hennessy and Thomas Donovan are reported to be very low.

Bishop Cohan is a cousin of Judge Daniel F. Cohan of New York.

DUBLIN, Oct. 30.—Two policemen were shot while trying to halt a motor car at Callooney, County Sligo, last evening. Reprisals followed in neighboring villages, six farmers' houses being partially burned.

TEMPLEMORE, Ireland, Oct. 30.—Templemore last night was the scene of five hours of terrorism when military forces raided the town, armed with guns, hatchets and other implements. They fired shots and burned premises, but no casualties have been reported.

IRISH COMMISSION ASKS BISHOPS TO AID

Jane Addams Hopes Home Conditions Will Improve.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—A delegation of Irish Bishops, to be selected by Cardinal Logue, has been asked to appear here next month to testify as to conditions in Ireland before the American Commission on Ireland, the Commission announced to-night, after a preliminary conference. It was decided to begin the public hearings November 17, the announcement said, and in addition to calling Cardinal Logue asking appointment of the Bishops, the Commission expects to hear Mayors of several Irish cities and other Irish witnesses as well as Americans who have recently visited Ireland.

Jane Addams of Chicago presided over the preliminary meeting of the Commission, which made public a formal declaration that it accepted its task "with the sincerest desire to improve the relations between the United States, Great Britain and Ireland, to obtain facts as to what is actually happening on Irish soil and to discover ways and means of offering continuing mediation if such ways exist."

"Firmly believing," the declaration continued, "that the present situation, if long continued, will menace the peace of the world, and realizing that it is already becoming a domestic political issue in America, the Commission seeks to shed light upon what is happening in order to present an actual picture of the crisis to the American people so that, with this background, constructive suggestions may arise as to a way out."
